We herewith submit the report of the Town of Berlin for the fiscal year ending February 15, 1894.

The excess in the bridge expenditures was caused by having to raise the grade to insure safety at high water.

The debt is increased considerably, until now it is a little over $100,000 but we have a good bridge, good sidewalks and good streets as far as they go and ones on which there will not need to be much expended for repairs. We would suggest that in the matter of macadamizing that it be carried on a little every year until our streets will compare favorably with other towns which are pursuing the same course of improvement.

The receipts from the Police court for account of the police force has been about $1,300 which make the net amount expended for the police about $700.

Our fire protection is improving every year and we have at present three very efficient companies, who improve at each fire, and the way in which fires have been handled, while it might be improved upon in many particulars, is very creditable to the companies.

It is to be hoped that the town will appropriate a sum of money for the running expenses of the library as suggested by the state librarian so that the work already so well begun may be continued.

We respectfully call attention to the reports of the different departments and to that of the Treasurer for the financial standing of the town.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

BERLIN, N. H., March 5, 1894.

To the Citizens of the town of Berlin:—

We, the undersigned, duly appointed auditors of the town of Berlin, for the fiscal year ending February 15th, 1894, beg to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined and checked all documents, receipts, etc. held by the selectmen of the town of Berlin, that were taken in exchange for orders on the town treasurer. We find that in the Highway department, the new law requiring that an itemized account be rendered monthly has not been complied with, and although the selectmen hold receipts for all the orders issued, there is an apparent discrepancy of $497, caused by missing orders of the town surveyor; and in view of this fact, and trusting that we may find said vouchers, we are obliged to ask for further time to show as nearly as possible in a supplementary report, the exact state of affairs in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH H. BATES,	}	Auditing Committee.

To the Citizens of Berlin:—

In presenting my report to the tax payers of Berlin, I wish to call attention to one fact, namely: that the year ending will be conceded by all to have been an unusually hard one. Following the "boom" of the summer of 1893 there came a relapse, and a great number suddenly found themselves without employment and means of support. This, together with sickness, will create pauperism. Nevertheless, the pauper bill has been reduced considerably, as you will see by comparing these figures with last years, and in my opinion it can be brought down still more. Of course we must take this into consideration, that our town is growing each year. Every complaint should be thoroughly investigated. During the past year I have not had one case that I have not called upon and watched from one week to another. No one is allowed to run a store bill, every purchase is made with an order signed by the Overseer, and all bills are looked through and approved before they are paid by the selectmen. In this way we know exactly how much each one has and the amount paid for it. The people in general do not realize the actual suffering and want we have in Berlin. Were the Overseer of the Poor a philanthropist with a large amount of money to expend in that direction he might relieve a great deal of suffering. The largest number of paupers are made by sickness. In regard to the supply bills I would say, I have endeavored to distribute it equally among the traders of Berlin so far as I could. The figures in this report show the full amount, covering everything for the past year. There are no bills in this department to lay over, that I know of. With the experience of the past year I feel confident that I can give many valuable suggestions to the incoming Overseer. This office created here the past year I believe to be a very important one, and one that needs a great deal of time devoted to it. But if carefully handled thousands of dollars can be saved the town and county. My books are open for inspection, and I will gladly furnish any information desired.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. FORBUSH, Overseer of Poor.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HEALTH.

To the Selectmen and Tax-payers of the Town of Berlin:

The Board of Health would respectfully submit the following: During the year we have worked constantly to put the town in a proper sanitary condition. As soon as the season permitted in early spring a thorough inspection of all premises was made; this was followed up until the winter came. Notices were distributed to all owners and occupants to put their premises in proper condition; special notices were served on all who disregarded those notices, examinations made of the premises to see that the demands of the health officers were complied with. Most of the people seemed anxious to comply with all requests, and to carry out the suggestions made to them; in a few instances it was necessary to prosecute parties for violation of the law. As a result the town was cleaner than ever before; old sink drains were abandoned and the new sewers used wherever they could be reached; if not, the drains were repaired and made as safe as could be; privies were cleaned nearly every thirty days, and not allowed to accumulate masses of filth. A systematic and regular inspection of the town was kept up by dividing the village, each health officer looking after a portion assigned to him, and reporting to the board all cases for action. The board together made five separate inspections of the whole village, while the individual members, or two together, went every week to some portions of the town. There was no epidemic during 1893, two slight cases of diphtheria, four of typhoid fever and a few cases of measles were all that were reported.

Your board would recommend that sewers be put in on the west side of the G. T. R., that the dumping ground be abandoned, or not kept up at the town's expense, as no other town that we know of does it; make each and every one responsible for the removal or destruction of all offensive matter by them collected, and it is a trivial matter to have a clean town.

Your board insisted that all rubbish in and about sheds, yards, grounds and barns be removed, chips, shavings, straw, banking, etc., and all such matter be taken away. We think the fire wards should also inspect the town and see that this is done, for it is a menace in case of fire in a dry time.

We would recommend that all children be vaccinated that attend our schools, as the law provides; also that a general vaccination be ordered, as none has been had since 1885; and our changing population, with the prevailing epidemic of small pox in Boston, Lowell, etc., make it necessary.

During the coming year it will not be so much of a task to inspect the town and keep it in proper condition. There will be places and men who will need watching, but a notice in writing will have the desired effect, as the enforcement of the law in the few cases in which we were obliged to act had a salutary effect. With our fine sewer system extended reasonably there will be little excuse for unsanitary premises. The greatest menace to life in our town is the high tenement houses, with narrow single steep stairs, with no fire escapes. While there is no law which will compel the owners to provide for the safety of their tenants, public sentiment ought to be aroused to such a pitch as to compel them to do so. More time has been spent the last year and more attention been given by the board of health to the condition of the town than ever before; for the reason that with the sewers and water supply, the rules adopted by the town governing the sewer system, the board have had larger opportunities to accomplish more than any former board. It has required a great deal of time and personal attention, with persistent efforts, on the part of the health officers, but we hope that the citizens will feel that the board have tried, to serve their best interests faithfully and impartially in all ways since they were honored with this trust.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES.

To the Board of Selectmen of Berlin:—

Gentlemen:—The trustees of the Public Library beg leave to submit their first annual report. The present board of three members was appointed in April, 1893, and immediately thereafter, met for the purpose of devising the best method of carrying out the wishes of the town concerning a free public library. Many obstacles presented themselves, necessitating much correspondence with the State Board of Library Commissioners. In the beginning, it was proposed to incorporate the Town library with that at Berlin Mills. The trustees of the library at the Mills offered shelf room free of expense. But the State board refused to donate the $100 worth of books, unless the books so given should be controlled exclusively by the town, and not amalgamated with a library already existing, and controlled by private parties. The trustees of the library at the upper village did not see their way clear to turn over their collection to the town, and as it would be manifestly impractical to have two separate libraries in the same rooms, and further, as there was a feeling in the community that the town library should be nearer the center of the town than it would be if located at the Mills, the trustees decided that the only feasible way would be to open an independent and entirely separate institution. We are pleased to note, in passing, that there is no rivalry between the two libraries, and we feel certain that the time is not far off when the two will be united, and as far as possible, books are being purchased with that prospect in view.

After much vexatious delay, two rooms were rented in Clement's block, and possession was taken October first. In consideration of being freed from the trouble of painting and papering the rooms, Mr. Clement reduced the rent to $4.00 per month. Shelves were put up, capacity about 1200 volumes. The trustees received much encouragement of a very practical kind, from several of our business and professional men, who came forward with liberal contributions, to pay the expenses contingent upon fitting and furnishing the rooms. This action, of course, enabled the trustees to purchase twice as many books as they otherwise would have done.

Early in November, the State Board of Library Commissioners, per our order, sent us 101 volumes, all well-selected, valuable works, including works of history, science, fiction, travels and biography. The institution was opened to the public November 22, 1893. From time to time, books have been purchased with the money appropriated by the town, and several individuals have presented books to the library (their names are appended to this report) till at the present time we have 320 volumes, amongst which one can find books on nearly every subject likely to come up in everyday life. In every town, the majority of the reading public call for fiction. In a small library, this department must necessarily increase more rapidly than any other, and the larger part of books purchased have been of this character, but we have striven to include only wholesome and harmless books, and trust that we have not been unsuccessful. The tastes and habits of study of all classes of people have been carefully considered in making our selections. Works relating to the arts and sciences, mechanics, ancient and modern history, biography, philosophy, politics and religion, will be found upon our shelves, and we think business and professional men, farmers, mechanics, teachers, as well as people of leisure may find there something of profit, education and recreation. An effort will be made in the near future to bring the library into closer relation with the schools, the trustees believing that a great field of usefulness lies in that direction. The report of the Librarian to which we invite your attention, shews excellent results accomplished in a short time and with comparatively limited means. In the course of a very few weeks the wisdom of maintaining a free circulating library in the center of our town has been entirely justified. In spite of the fact that the undertaking has been only moderately advertised, the public has quickly availed itself of its privileges, and the small number of volumes already acquired has been drawn upon steadily to an extent demanding large and immediate additions to the stock of books, in order to meet in some measure, the needs of its patrons. The scene whenever the Library is opened for the distribution of books ought to convince every visitor that the town should warmly second the efforts of the trustees to render the institution thoroughly efficient. The steady stream of applicants for books, and the great interest evinced, plainly shew that a very real need in the life of our community is being met to some degree by this work.

Perhaps the most striking feature in the circulation of the Library at present is displayed in the large number of books taken out by boys. They have eagerly devoured books of adventure, travel and boys' fiction to an extent which has made it necessary to limit the circulation of this class of literature in order to husband the limited supply at the disposal of the public. When it is considered that the youth of Berlin have few resources for using and improving their time outside of school hours, the value of the Library in supplying a means for developing a taste for good literature among them, becomes clearly evident.

There is not the shadow of a doubt that the Berlin Free Public Library should be liberally maintained and made as efficient as possible. It is not a question simply of support; the Library must be increased and rendered capable of doing the work which our citizens demand of it. To this end the Trustees beg leave respectfully to call the attention of the town of Berlin to the needs of the institution which are most pressing. First; in order to increase the number of volumes and supply those departments which at present are lacking, —especially works of reference in science and history, and in fiction, for girls, an appropriation of $200 is recommended. The Library aims, of course to reach all, but there is a dearth in those branches of reading just named which has seriously hindered its usefulness, and the defect ought to be remedied. Simply to maintain the circulation a very considerable increase in the number of volumes is really required. After one day's opening for distribution now, the shelves are often left almost bare. The sum desired is not excessive for such needs.

Secondly; we recommend that $50.00 be appropriated for the salary of the Librarian. The present salary of $25.00 is ridiculously inadequate in view of the amount of labor constantly required to manage the affairs of the Library. This labor must steadily increase and in simple fairness its recompense should not be under $50.00.

Thirdly; the running expenses of the Library include at the lowest possible estimate $50 for rent, and $15 for fuel and lights, and other incidentals.

The Trustees, therefore, in view of the extraordinary success of the Library from the start, and its usefulness to all citizens of Berlin, do respectfully recommend that the town appropriate the sum of $315 for the maintenance of the Free Public Library during the ensuing year.

The following regulations have been adopted by the Trustees, an abstract from which is pasted inside the cover of each book.

REGULATIONS.

No book or other property belonging to the Library shall be taken from the Library room without the consent of the Librarian.

Any person entitled to Library privileges, who shall take any book from the Library room without allowing the usual record to be made of the loan of such book, shall be fined one dollar.

No person shall loan any book belonging to the Library to any one outside of his own household, under penalty of forfeiture of Library card.

The holder of a card can draw but one book at a time.

No book can be taken from the Library or returned except on presentation of borrower's card.

A book can be kept out two weeks, unless otherwise stated on the cover. When kept beyond the time allowed, a fine of two cents per day shall be charged.

Books may be renewed (with the exception of seven-day books) by returning the book with card, to the Library, when the book is due.

If an overdue book is not returned, the borrower shall be charged with all expense incurred in sending for the same.

Borrowers owing a fine shall forfeit all privileges of the Library until such fine is paid.

Any one losing or injuring a book shall replace it with one of equal value, or pay the Librarian for the same, as he shall determine.

Any resident of Berlin, above the age of twelve years, may take books from the Library, on complying with the regulations. Residents of adjacent towns may take books from the Library subject to a fee determined by the Trustees.

The Library shall be open for the distribution of books on such days and hours as the Trustees may direct. It shall be closed on all legal holidays, and also for three consecutive weeks of each year, for the examination of the books.

The Trustees may, at any time, restrict certain books to use in the Library only, withdraw them from circulation entirely, or if in great demand, limit the time of their absence from the Library to seven days and make such other regulations as shall be found for the best interest of book takers.

DONATIONS TO THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Over fifty books have been presented to the Library by private parties, while eight have been received from the United States Government, and one hundred and one from the State of New Hampshire. Cash subscriptions have been received from the following: Rev. B. Brunning, Irving Stearns, F. L. Wilson, A. M. Stahl, C. C. Gerrish & Co., A. H. Eastman, G. S. Wilson, W. A. Hodgdon, H. L. Steinfeld, J. B. Gilbert, N. J. Marchand & Co., A. B. Forbush, C. E. Knapp, C. Brooks, J. Howard Wight, A. Lavallee, F. A. Colby, J. J. Cobb, R. N. Chamberlin, Daley, Goss & Niles, Jas. H. O'Donnell, J. D. Holt.

Books have been presented to the Library as follows:

In conclusion, the trustees wish to acknowledge the courtesy and consideration with which the present board of selectmen have received their suggestions concerning the library, and have aided in carrying them out; also to bear witness to the efficiency of the Librarian, a lady whose excellent scholarly attainments peculiarly fit her for the position she occupies. It is to be hoped that her services may be retained for many years to come.

Berlin, March 1, 1894.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN.

To the Board of Trustees:

Gentlemen:—Agreeably to your orders, I tender my first annual report as Librarian of the Berlin Public Library.

Whole number accessions, Mar. 1, 1894,	320
Received from State of N. H.,	101
Donated by individuals,	58
Purchased,	161
	320
Number of days open to the public (Dec. 28-
Mar. 1,)	26
Number of volumes delivered for home use,	662
Average number per day in December,	19
Average number per day in January,	25
Average number per day in February,	31
Average number per day (whole time,)	26
Largest number in one day (Feb. 24,)	52
Number of guarantees received for new cards,	142
Number of cards returned (not in use,)	1

The above statistics of circulation are based upon data beginning December 2, 1893. Although the Library was first opened to the public November 22d, no record was kept of the circulation till December 2. These statistics are hardly a fair criterion of the usefulness of our Library. People were slow to discover that such an institution existed; the circulation for the first weeks was very small; thus, the average for the whole time is lower than it should be. There has been a steady increase in the circulation from the beginning, hardly a library-day passing, during which no new cards are issued. Much annoyance is caused by such a small number of books being drawn upon by so large a number of borrowers. At present, there are 141 cards in active use in the library, and only 320 volumes. The result has been that a person rarely finds the book "in" that he wants; and there have been days when the number of books remaining on the shelves was ridiculously small. But borrowers have displayed much patience with this state of affairs, and as the Library grows, it will largely be remedied.

Appended to this report, will be found a classified catalogue of the books belonging to the Library, March 1, 1894. I would suggest that a few hundred copies of this be printed outside of the report, for distribution to patrons of the library. A small price could be put upon these catalogues, which would both add to the resources of the Library, and insure their proper care. By means of bulletins, an attempt has been made to keep lists of new books posted, as soon as they are ready for delivery. Some books get overlooked, but such will always be found in the card-catalogue, which is always complete and up to date. This is but little used by the public, but as the institution grows, patrons will gradually discover its usefulness. For "hunting up" a certain book, a card-catalogue offers the readiest and most convenient method.

A study of the patrons of the Library shows that the majority of them are boys of from 13 to 16 years of age. (On the first day of opening, November 22d, ten persons applied for books. Of these, six were High School boys, three were men and two ladies.) This fact alone is a strong argument for the proper maintenance of the institution. The next largest class is ladies, but their number is nearly equalled by that of the gentlemen. The smallest class of readers is young girls. Possibly this may be because of the scarcity of books in the Library, written for this class of readers. The boys seem anxious to devour everything in their line that the Library has to offer. They select mostly fiction, naturally, but travels, natural science and history are not overlooked by them.

An abstract from the Library records showing the circulation for February, will give a fair idea of the character of the reading.

February,	3	7	10	14	17	21	24	27
Fiction,	40	12	30	8	32	18	46	10
Travels,	3	3	3	1	4	1	3	1
History,			4	1	1		1	1
Biography, . . .	1			1			1
Natural Science, .					2	1
Practical Art, . .		1		1		1	1
Satire and Humor, .	2	1		1	3
Literature, . . .	2	1	1	2	1	3
Social Science, . .	1		1
Total,	49	18	39	15	43	24	52	12

The relation which the fiction circulation bears to that of other subjects can be seen from the above table. For the month, it averages about 73 per cent. If the circulation increases in the future as it has in the past, which is unlikely, it will be necessary to increase the number of hours during which the Library is open.

In some towns, enjoying library privileges, clubs are formed for the purpose of studying special subjects. Should any wish to form such a club here the librarian will be glad to suggest methods of study, and to mark out a course of reading to be followed.

For some reason, the teachers in the public schools have been slow to avail themselves of the advantages which the Library offers in their work. Probably this is in absence of a printed catalogue, they have not yet found out the resources of the Library in this direction. With their active co-operation, the Library might be made a powerful adjunct to the schools in the work of practical education. I would suggest that there be occasional meetings of the teachers at the Library, for a conference with the librarian and trustees. To them the Library should be accessible at all times.

From an inside point of view, it is evident that the Library has started on a very useful career, and, to use a well-worn-phrase, fills a "long-felt want."

HATTIE L. JOHNSON, Librarian.

CATALOGUE OF BOOKS

—: IN THE :—

Berlin Free Public Library,

FEBRUARY 28, 1894.

Explanatory Note.

Titles and authors' names in this catalogue are arranged according to subjects, i. e., all books treating of the same subject are grouped in one class, and will be found under that class. Each book number consists of two parts, the class number and the book number proper. Both must be used, when given, on calling for the book. For example, supposing a person wishes to take Johnston's "History of American Politics" from the library. He turns, in the catalogue, to the subject "History." He finds this subdivided according to the countries dealt with. He follows the subdivision till he sees "United States." Looking down the list of works on United States history he finds "Johnston, Alexander. 'History of American Politics.' 973 J64." He writes this number on his card, in one of the spaces under "Books wanted," and presents the card to the Librarian, who will give him the book. In the same way, works on any subject may be found, by first looking up the subject, then the author. For convenience, the class number of the Fiction list is omitted, and the book number alone is used. This portion of the catalogue is arranged in what is known as the dictionary form, i. e., authors' names and titles of books are listed together, alphabetically. By this means, each book can be found either by author or by its title.

Persons wishing to take books from the library, will fill out the accompanying form, to be obtained at the library, get it attested by some person acceptable to the trustees, and return it to the librarian, who will issue a card the following week, to be used in borrowing books.
